Winter Storm Press Conference January 19, 2010

Flagstaff, AZ – In preparation for the current and continuing severe winter storm conditions that will exist in Northern Arizona throughout this week, the National Weather Service and Northern Arizona Public Safety Agencies will host a Media Briefing on Tuesday, January 19, 2010 at 2:00 PM in the auditorium of the Law Enforcement Administration Facility located at 911 Sawmill Road, Flagstaff, Arizona. Representatives of the National Weather Service will provide updated forecasts for the impending storms and public safety officials will speak about our combined level of preparedness. Information regarding winter storm awareness and preparedness as well as procedures for sheltering in place will be available. For additional information regarding the press conference please call Gerry Blair at (928) 226-5089.
